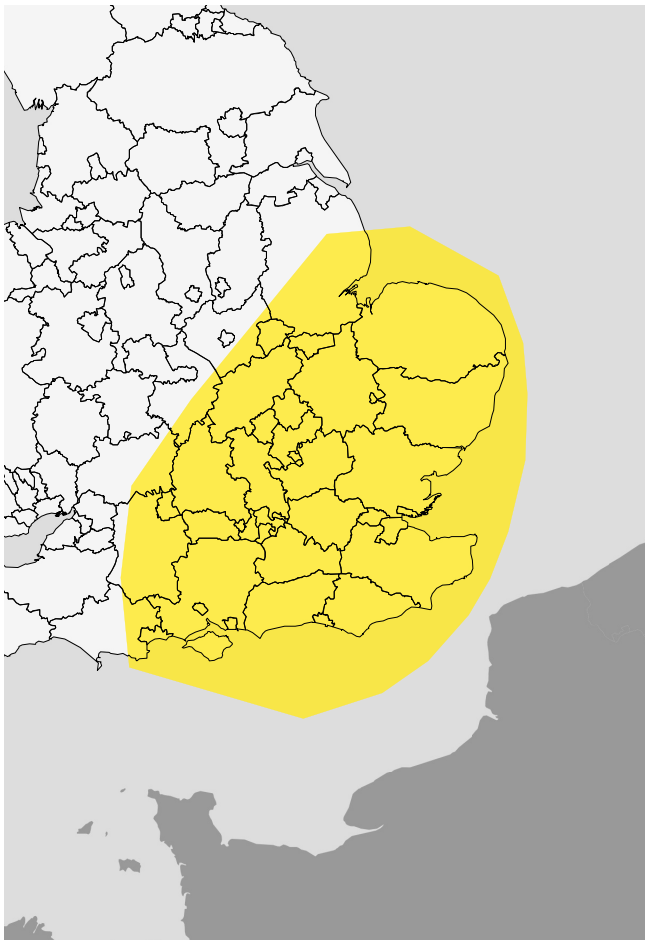
Yellow warning
Thunderstorm

Between
18:00 Wed 16 Jun 2021 and
19:00 Thu 17 Jun 2021



Some places may see thunderstorms today which may lead to travel disruption and flooding.

What to expect

- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded quickly, with damage to some buildings from floodwater, lightning strikes, hail and strong winds
- Where flooding or lightning strikes occur, there is a chance of delays and some cancellations to train and bus services
- Spray and sudden flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- There is a small chance that some communities become cut off by flooded roads
- There is a slight chance that power cuts could occur and other services to some homes and businesses could be lost

Further details

The remnants of overnight showers and thunderstorms will tend to fade away this morning. Then, during the afternoon, there is a chance that thunderstorms may develop again over parts of East Anglia and , perhaps, the far southeast of England. Whilst most places will miss thunderstorms today, where they do occur torrential rain, frequent lightning and strong gusty winds are possible. Rainfall totals of 20 to 30 mm could fall in an hour, with a few locations perhaps receiving around 50 mm in two or three hours.

Very low likelihood of medium impacts
